Checklist: Visit family or friends in Denmark

If missing supporting documents are not presented promptly (5 calendar days from the application is handed in at Gerry's), the visa application will be refused by the Embassy. Decision on the application will normally take place within 15 calendar days after lodging the application. The period may be extended up to a maximum of 30 calendar days in individual cases, if further scrutiny of the application is needed or in cases of representation where the represented state is consulted. In exceptional cases, when additional documentation is needed, the period may be extended up to a maximum of 60 calendar days.

Application processing time counts from the time the application is delivered to the Embassy via Gerry's.

Important: Please read and sign

I hereby confirm that I personally have submitted this application for a visa and that all information stated in the application and the supporting documentation is true. I am aware that providing incorrect information or falsified documents deliberately are punishable by both Pakistani and Danish law and will lead to refusal of visa. I am also aware that the processing time is up to 15 days or more, and that I may be required to submit some other documents or to have an interview with Consular authorities. I have also been informed that there is an increased risk of the visa application being rejected if the requested information is not provided within the given deadline.
